PER-ONAL.

John M. Duncan of Tyler is in the city.

W. L. McDonald of Decatur is in the city.

J. A. Walker of Colorado City is in the Fort.

P. W. Eads, J. W. Eads and R. M. Biles of Roanoke are in the city.

City Engineer E. K. Smoot and bride returned last night from a wedding trip to Galveston and New Orleans.

John Caulfield, traveling agent for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, was in the city yesterday and called on THE GAZETTE.

Mrs. Lulu Cowen of Whitesboro, who has been visiting her brother, Capt. A. P. Ryan, left for home yesterday.

H. O. Gordon, Macon, Mo.; J. W. Wilson, Tom Jordan, Gainesville; Dr. W. H. Baldwin, Dallas; W. S. Phillips, T. & P. R. R.; G. S. Ball, city; F. H. McElwain, New York; Mrs. Sue McKelvey, Mrs. B. Queen, Temple; W. L. Kinne, Chicago, are registered at the Grandview hotel.

The departure of Miss Jennie Ryan on a protracted visit to Paris has thrown a gloom over the social circle in which she moved as a queen. Paris will be the objective point in the thoughts of a number of young society men of this city during her absence.

LOCALETTES.

Fred Warde appears at the opera-house to-night as Brutus and Petruccio.

The dancing class met at Godwin's hall last night and the scholars had a very pleasant time.

Judge R. E. Beckham will turn the business of the county court over to his successor, Judge Sam Furman, today.

The Grand View hotel, under the management of Messrs. C. H. Murdoch & Co., is greatly improved and is doing a thriving business.

In the district court yesterday, the case of Allen vs. the Fort Worth Street Railway company came up for trial. This is a suit for damages, caused by the death of the plaintiff's little son, who was run over and killed by a car on Main street. The case was not finished when court adjourned until this morning.

During the past week quite a number of counterfeit nickels have been put in the face box on the street cars in this city. Small and insignificant as the swindle is, the managers have determined to put a stop to it, and have offered a reward for the detection of persons so swindling.

A very bright little fifteen-month-old boy child of Dr. Ansell died yesterday afternoon. THE GAZETTE extends its sympathy to the bereaved parents.

Chief R. Matkin has made a report of the number of fires and damages done during the past four months. There have been twelve alarms, eight small fires and the total damage is under $500. This report speaks volumes for the efficiency of the fire department.

Mrs. Benton is making great preparations for the hop at Godwin's hall to-morrow night, which will be conducted under her and Prof. Willmet's supervision. The invitations have been sent out to most of the fashionable people of the city, and the affair promises to be a great success.

The following non-jury civil cases were decided by Judge Furman in the county court yesterday: M. C. Boez vs. the Missouri Pacific Railway company, two appeal cases from the justice court, judgment for plaintiff for $132.50 in each case; Levy Bros. & Co. vs. E. S. Turk, judgment for plaintiff final by default for $607.75; J. I. Wright vs. the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railroad company, judgment for plaintiff for $90. City National bank vs. D. Schwartz & Co., judgment for plaintiff for $500, judgment for plaintiff for $500, judgment for plaintiff for $500.

Last night as a street car was coming up from the depot about 8:45, a gentleman with his wife and child got on the car. He was carrying the child in his arms, and as he passed through a crowd of men on the rear platform he cried out for help, saying somebody's hand was in his pocket. Burdened as he was with the child, he could not see who it was, and did not find out. Fortunately, the would-be pick-pocket struck the wrong pocket and got nothing for his pains. The gentleman got off at the Clark house and refused to give his name to a reporter who was on the car.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Happy Cal Wagner's Minstrels appear here next Friday night.

Warde will make all the ladies angry to-night by his actions in taming a shrew.

Fred Warde is said to be one of the greatest students in his profession, and now that the great McCullough is unfit for the stage he bids fair to take the place of that eminent tragedian, as his style is very similar.

"Brutus, or the Fall of Tarquin," was written by John Howard Payne, and is said to be a thrilling tragedy, approaching in merit some of the great works of Shakespeare. The last act is described as being as thrillingly dramatic as anything ever seen on the boards.

Fred Warde should be seen by his admirers to-night in both tragedy and comedy. He appears in the opera-house in a double bill, playing Brutus and Petruccio. An opportunity of this nature may never be had again. The probabilities are that with clear weather the house will be packed, so secure your seats to-day.

One of the criticisms offered upon Mr. Warde is that he does not pay enough attention to the minor parts of the character he assumes and devotes all his recognized genius to the stronger parts of his play. We believe this to be untrue, but to-night critical observers can see for themselves whether this is true or not.

Every smoker should try "Little Joker."

We offer to customers generally the following Standard Coals, viz:

THE CELEBRATED McALLISTER (NATION COAL, The best Coal mined in the Southwest for domestic and steam purposes.

THE NOTED BLACK WARRIOR (ALABAMA) COAL, For heating and steam purposes.

KANAWHA SPLINT (VIRGINIA) COAL, Equal to English Cannel and specially adapted for grates. Comes in blocks, free from dirt and waste.

WEST VIRGINIA FORGE COAL, Testimonials after trial prove it to be the best Coal for smithing purposes ever brought to this state. Price four to six dollars per ton lower than Forge coal has been selling.

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE, For heating purposes.

WOOD, In cord length size or sawed and split.

COKE SCREENINGS, For domestic and steam purposes.

The various kinds of fuel as noted above, will be sold at favorable prices, in large or small quantities as desired, at yard or delivered to any part of the city. Promptness, fair dealing and full weights guaranteed.

Respectfully,

Fort Worth Gaslight Co. Fuel Department,

Telephone 235. Office Smith & Jarvis Block, 511 Houston St.

Dog-collars, locks, chains, whips and whistles at Anderson's gun store.

The largest stock of guns, pistols, ammunition and hunting supplies in the state at Anderson's gun store.

Not Hard to Find.

Any little boy in town can show you where Anderson's gun store is.

By selling on the installment plan Fakes & Co. have kept up their sales to the regulation standard throughout the dull summer season, and they propose a continuation of sales in this manner till all who desire it have their homes comfortably furnished.

November the 18th.

The fall season so far has been an unusually dry one and since the change has come it is safe to predict unfavorable weather for several days, and perhaps weeks. This would be a sad thought to those who have outdoor duties to perform were it not for the fact that for a small outlay they can prepare themselves "for three weeks' rain followed by a freeze."

Rubbers and overcoats are offered this season at prices heretofore unheard of and the stock of Malone, Waller & Co. surpasses anything yet shown in the city for style, quality and quantity. They bought from first hands at lowest cash prices and they bought for a winter of "blizzards."

The blizzards haven't come and they are growing anxious to sell. Call and see them while their stock is full.

Frederick Warde.

The admirers of Mr. Warde can see him to-night in the double role of tragedian and comedian. Two plays are billed for to-night and he appears as Brutus in "Brutus, or the Fall of Tarquin," and as Petruccio in "Taming the Shrew."

This will be a rare treat to theater-goers, and those who neglect to see Mr. Warde to-night will not have the opportunity presented them again this season. The street cars almost center at the opera-house, besides you have the entire day before, and by calling at Malone, Waller & Co. you can buy at astonishingly low figures a cloak, doorman or wrap that will enable you to bid defiance to the weather. Their stock is full and complete and they have some of the handsomest goods in this line ever yet shown in the city.
